Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 20 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry, bright morning. Cloudier afternoon, patchy light rain edging eastwards.

Today:
Most places having a dry morning although sunshine will become confined to Inverness and Easter Ross. Cloud and patchy rain reaching the West Coast later this morning edging eastwards this afternoon with rain fizzling out. Dry, brighter weather following. Breezy. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:
It will be dry overnight with clear periods but becoming cloudy over Western Isles by morning. Southwesterly winds freshening on the West Coast later tonight. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tuesday:
Many places will stay dry with sunshine in the morning then cloudy in afternoon. Thickening cloud will bring light rain to West Coast. Strengthening southwest winds, coastal gales by evening. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
More typical autumnal weather for rest of the week. Blustery showers, some heavy and prolonged. Drier, brighter interludes, especially in east. Windy with gales, possibly severe in northwest.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.